

POLICY FORUM

A NATION OF HOMEOWNERS:

How Tax Reform Can Boost the American Dream

- 12:00 PM      DOORS OPEN | REGISTRATION
- 12:30 PM      NETWORKING LUNCH
- 1:30 PM      OPENING REMARKS
Sara Lipnitz, NAR Vice President of Advocacy
- 1:40 PM      FIRESIDE CHAT
The Honorable French Hill, Chairman, House Financial Services Committee
Moderated by: Shannon McGahn, NAR Chief Advocacy Officer
- 2:00 PM      PANEL 1: Making the political case for housing supply and affordability as Congress takes on tax reform
Andrew Olmem, Mayer Brown, Former National Economic Council Deputy Director
Ryan Ellis, Ryan Ellis LLC, Former Director at Americans for Tax Reform
Anna Taylor, Deloitte, Former Chief Tax Advisor to Senator Chuck Schumer
Moderated by: Heather Long, Columnist, Washington Post
- 2:45 PM      NETWORKING BREAK
- 2:55 PM      FIRESIDE CHAT

POLICY FORUM

A NATION OF HOMEOWNERS:

How Tax Reform Can Boost the American Dream

Stephen Moore, The Heritage Foundation, Founder and Former President of the Club for Growth

Moderated by: Shannon McGahn, NAR Chief Advocacy Officer

3:15 PM

PANEL 2: What supply-and-affordability-related homeownership measures should Congress prioritize in the tax reform bill?

Barbara Angus, Ernst & Young, Former Chief Tax Counsel to House Ways and Means Committee Republicans

Adam Carasso, Capitol Counsel and Former Tax Counsel to Senate Finance Committee Democrats

JP Delmore, Assistant Vice President National Association of Home Builders

Moderated by: Heather Long, Columnist, Washington Post

3:55 PM

CLOSING REMARKS

Kevin Sears, NAR President

4:00 – 5:30 PM

COCKTAIL RECEPTION

Location: Grand Hyatt Washington, Independence Foyer, Lafayette Park & Farragut Square, Independence Level 5B

