Please type your initials for each of the points below.

1. To attend REALTORS® Legislative Meetings, and the NAR NXT The REALTOR® Experience, and participate in all events pertinent to Global Ambassadors/Global Coordinators, including without limitation the meetings of the Global Alliances Advisory Board.
2. To host the delegation from your assigned bilateral partner(s) at NAR's conferences, and to facilitate their participation at the meetings and social events to which they are invited.
3. To communicate regularly with your bilateral partner(s) and to inform their representatives, your Global Coordinator (if you are a Global Ambassador), and NAR staff of news, updates and problems, and to offer assistance in a timely manner.
4. To be familiar with the terms of any agreements between NAR and your bilateral partner(s) and to assist NAR's staff with disputes or problems that involve your bilateral partner(s).
5. To the extent that participation in the bilateral partner(s)'s annual meeting or convention can potentially help NAR reach its objectives, the Global Ambassadors/Global Coordinators are encouraged to attend these events as a representative of NAR, and to promote International REALTOR® Membership, promote NAR courses, certifications and designations, and encourage participation by foreign delegates in the NAR NXT The REALTOR® Experience Conference.
6. To assist, as appropriate, U.S.-based members who seek to establish business relationships by introducing them to appropriate contacts affiliated with the bilateral partner(s).
7. To provide Global Coordinator (if you are a Global Ambassador) and/or NAR staff with quarterly reports outlining relevant activities and policies, including relationships, assistance in trade missions and member business opportunities, as well as any communication with bilateral partner(s) representatives and members from assigned countries.

9. To assist NAR, as needed, in gathering information on your bilateral partner(s) and the real estate markets and business practices in your countries, and in implementing the bilateral partner agreement between NAR and the respective bilateral partner, as requested by NAR.

13. To immediately disclose any situation that arises in connection with your NAR Global Ambassador or Global Coordinator role that actually or reasonably could present or be perceived to be a conflict of interest. While it is understood that you may have active cross-border business or that, as a result of your role, opportunities may arise to develop business in your assigned country(ies) that is outside your role as Global Ambassador/Global Coordinator, a conflict of interest occurs when you are in a position to financially profit or otherwise personally benefit directly or indirectly because of your role as Global Ambassador/Global Coordinator. Examples of such conflicts of interest included, but are not limited to: efforts to market properties or seek listings in your assigned country(ies); to seek or promote a specific investment, joint venture or business relationship; efforts to seek or promote teaching or writing opportunities other than those owned or sponsored by NAR; consulting arrangements with a bilateral partner(s) or conducting non-NAR related business while traveling on a NAR travel grant. You must immediately report all actual or potential conflicts of interest to NAR Global staff. Once you have reported the situation, NAR Global staff will determine whether the situation presented poses a prohibited conflict of interest. Failure to comply with this paragraph may result in suspension or removal from your position as Global Ambassador/Global Coordinator.
