

RESOURCES:

PRESENTERS, ASSOCIATIONS AND BROKERS

This handout includes many sources of information you can use to find new information, tailor that information to your members, and keep the safety message strong all year long.

The best place to start is the REALTOR® Safety Program's website at nar.realtor/safety.

Other organizations and REALTOR® Associations have much to offer. You'll find their information listed below.

FOR MEMBERS

Planning Your Safety Strategy

The goal of NAR's REALTOR® Safety Program is to educate members about the potential dangers you face on the job, so you are not only aware, but also prepared to keep yourself safe and reduce the risks, so you come home safely to your family every night. This is done by creating and implementing a Safety Strategy that you follow every day, with every client, every time.

Tips and Best Practices

Ready-to-share materials covering a variety of topics including client meetings, safety during open houses and at showings, cyber security, and more.

Safety Webinars & Videos

Register for NAR's free REALTOR® Safety Webinars, held annually in September, and watch the Safety Videos to keep safety top-of-mind year-round.
